The SHOE FOR YOU

We have the sizes
We know how

Good feet depend on proper shoe fitting.
Proper fitting is impossible without knowledge, PLUS, proper sizes and widths.
Can you afford to experiment with

Your Only Pair of Feet by shoeing them at a store that may be lacking in either of these absolute requirements, sizes and knowledge?

We have both.

SUTTON & McBEE

A brand new argument for Clothcraft Clothes

It means a lot to us, as well as to you, what make of clothes we sell at $10 to $20.

If we don't give you the best, we lose hundreds of dollars in possible business.

When we say "Come in and try on a Clothcraft Blue Serge Special," our confidence is based on the absolute fact that no other line has brought back to the store so many pleased and satisfied old customers.

There's the best proof of the value of Scientific Tailoring—that first saves money and then puts it back into the clothes and adds an absolute all-wool guarantee.

Bowling Poynter.

Bowling Poynter died last week at his home in London, aged 76 years. He was born in old Sinking Valley, Putnam county, May 18, 1838.

When he was a small child, his father, Jas. Poynter, moved and settled near Rockcastle Springs, where he spent his boyhood days and early manhood days. Bowling Poynter served efficiently in the union army until he was discharged at Nashville for disability. After partially recovering he went on foot to Bowling Green, and by train to Louisville, where he was under care of physicians for a few weeks before returning home, by train to Lexington, by stage coach via Danville and Stanford to Somerset, then by foot to Rockcastle Springs. After a few months he sufficiently recovered to enlist again with the government, this time in the wagon service between Camp Dick Robinson and Cumberland Gap, over the old Boone Trail, or Wilderness Road.

The name Poynter is closely connected with the early history of Kentucky.

John Poynter, together with two or three brothers, landed from England at Cape Henry, Norfolk Va., about 1770. "The Great Woods," known as the Transsylvania Country, and later Kentucky was known far and wide among the early Virginia Colonists. Boone had blazed the trail, via Cumberland Gap, which was easily followed, but hazardous and dangerous on account of so many hostile Indians. For protection immigrants came in groups as military companies, under captains. Thus, thirty-six strong brave men under the leadership of Captain John Boyle, in 1780, allied by common agreement and using the motto which later became the motto of our state.
"United we stand divided we fall," settled on Dick's river, now Crab Orchard, Lincoln county, and built a fort, or stockade. John Poynter leaving his brothers to settle in Virginia, was one of the thirty six and he remained here the rest of his life. He married and raised a large family.

BRODHEAD.

On last Monday night the stock holders of the Brodhead Fair Association met at the Citizens Bank Hall, and to say that enthusiasm reached a fever heat would only be putting it lightly. A number of speeches were made by the various members, but the one that received most applause was delivered by Chint Lear, of the Hiatt section. At the close of his remarks he proposed that a vote be taken to ascertain how many present was willing to donate one day's work, those having teams to bring them, together with plows, wagons, harrows, rollers, etc., and those less fortunate to bring axes, mattocks, saws, hammers, and all kinds of working tools, and give one day free labor. This seemed to meet with the approval of every one, and Wednesday the 17th was set apart as Free Work Day. In order to be fully ready for this big day's work the management are making great preparation to get some of the minor things out of the way and have everything ready for completion on next Wednesday. We expect every stockholder to be present, and cordially invite those who own no stock to come and help us that day make a home for the Brodhead Fair Association. Ice-water and shade will be in abundance, and doubtless delicious surprises are in store. Let everybody come or send their representative—Master Austin Sparks Durham is with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Watson this week.—Miss Ella Carson returned from Mt. Vernon, Tuesday, where she spent several weeks at the Langdon Dormitory.—A. M. Hiatt and John Robins were appointed Town Trustees to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of C. H. Fifth and A. E. Albright.— Henry M. Brooks was here between trains Sunday, with his uncle, W. T. Brooks. Henry has recently been promoted to foreman of a bridge crew, and we are proud to know that he is making good.—Ed Hurt was here a few days ago visiting his tather and brother.—Ab Winkler, of Louisville, who recently underwent a very serious operation, was the guest of his father near here a few days last week.—Judge G. M.

Ballard, L. W. Bethurum, T. J.
Nicely and County Attorney E.
R. Gentry, were in town last week —I. B. Chestnut and his cousin, Mr. Griffith, were in town last week.—Mr. Chestnut has a position in Virginia that pays him a good salary. He is teaching Agriculture and his many friends in these parts are glad that he is making such a decided success.— The Board of Education for this Sub District met here last Saturday, and elected teachers for the various schools.—Mrs. J. L. Piker-ton, of Elizabethtown, was here last Friday looking out a location.
Her husband is principal of Brodhead Graded School for the coming year. They will move here about July 1st.—Mrs. Robert Albright, of Stanford, was with her mother, Mrs. Bettie Brown, a few days last week.—Ben Pike was here from Casey County from Saturday until Monday. Ben is looking after the interests of The Lyons Lumber Co., in Casey. He returned Monday, Mrs. Pike and her sister, Miss Sue Cable, accompanied him.—Mrs. Walter Smith, and her sister-in-law, Miss Lucy Smith, of Crab Orchard, were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Owens, during the week.—Miss Gertrude Martin, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Martin, and Byron Owens, son of Postmaster and Mrs. Granville Owens, boarded the early train last Friday morning for Jeffersonville, where they were married. Mr. Owens and Miss Martin had been sweethearts since childhood almost, and their marriage was not at all a surprise.
We join their many friends in wishing them happiness thru their wedded life. They are now keeping house where Prof. T. H.
L Atkins vacated.—Mrs. W. F. Carter and children are visiting relatives in Shelby County. They will probably remain there for two or three weeks. The Doctor spent Monday and Tuesday with them in Shelbyville.—Miss Mary Proctor is assisting the Citizens Bank force now. We understand that Mrs. L. M. Brown has offered her resignation to take effect July 1st as book-keeper, and at that time Miss Proctor will assume the duties of Mrs. Brown.—The sad news reached us Monday morning that Shirley L. Tate was dead at his home in Sweetwater, Tenn. It came as a great shock to his many friends here, as but few of them knew that he was sick, and none knew him to be seriously ill. His widow used to be Willie Benton, who lived here with her parents.

We extend to all the bereaved ones much sympathy.—John Rigby, of Preghersville, was here Tuesday buying hogs.—Albert Albright, of Lebanon Junction, was here during the week with his father, W. A. Albright, and other relatives.—John Riddle, proprietor of The Walnut Grove Roller Mills, and son Joe, were here during the week.—State Senator Joe F. Bosworth, of Middletown, addressed a small but appreciative audience here Wednesday afternoon. Senator Bosworth has many friends in this vicinity.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
Send for circulars, free.
